

End-to-End Solutions to Deploy, Manage, Secure Your Storage Architecture

Platform Solutions, Inc. knows your data storage requirements are crucial and ever-mounting. That's why we've partnered with leading storage providers to create solutions for your storage architecture and business continuity strategies. Storage Area Networks (SAN) simplify complex storage needs and increase availability, while Network Attached Storage (NAS) is ideal for specialized storage applications.

In the area of preparedness, you have been tasked by your organization to prepare for the worst and to effectively mitigate your risk. Along with our experienced industry-leading partners, we will formulate a strategy for your organization to intelligently back up data in accordance with business needs, regulatory requirements and industry best practices. This approach can include tape, disk and offsite backup, as well as testing and cataloging for the quickest turnaround times.

We can consult you on how storage solutions enhance:

- Information lifecycle management
- Storage compliance requirements
- Optimized WAN storage
- Virtualization strategies
- Enterprise backup
- Disaster recovery
- Business continuity
